Karuna Trust

Field: Health

Headquartered at: Bengaluru

Year of Establishment: 1986

Legal Form of Business: Not for profit

Karuna Trust is transforming dysfunctional government primary healthcare centers (PHCs) into professional hubs of 'last mile' healthcare service delivery. It has pioneered a Public Private Partnership (PPP) model that brings the government, the village community and the social venture together to deliver high quality primary healthcare to rural India. The government invests in upgrading infrastructure and pays for the efficient running of the PHCs; Karuna Trust brings in healthcare management systems and disruptive health innovations to the centers; village health councils hold their PHCs accountable for reporting higher health outcomes and functioning as zero-corruption zones.

Karuna Trust has revitalized 67 PHCs across 7 states, half of which reach remote corners of North-East India. With ISO certification, trained medical and administrative teams, zero-absenteeism of doctors, upgraded infrastructure, tele-medicine, mobile medical units, efficient supply chain of essential medicines and a citizens help desk, PHCs run by Karuna Trust have raised the bar for primary healthcare service in India. They have served more than one million patients and reported health outcomes that are amongst the highest in the country.

Winner of the SEOY 2014 Award, Dr H Sudarshan of Karuna Trust receiving the award from the The Chief Guest Mr Arun Jaitley, Minister of Finance, Corporate Affairs and Defence, Government of India.

Background

The award aims to identify and celebrate visionary social entrepreneurs who have demonstrated large-scale, systems-changing models and are at the stage of scaling/replicating their ideas across India and in other countries. For the last five years, Jubilant Bhartia Foundation in collaboration with the Schwab Foundation for Social Entrepreneurship has been selecting 'Social Entrepreneur of the Year India Awards' to recognize and open up unprecedented international opportunities for social entrepreneurs.

Award Benefits

Dr. Sudarshan will join Schwab Foundation's global network of social entrepreneurs. He will have the opportunity to participate in relevant regional summits and the annual meeting of the World Economic Forum (WEF) in Davos, as well as contribute to the Global Agenda Councils of WEF. These provide unprecedented access to global decision makers from the public, corporate, media, academic, and civil society sectors.
