

Publication: Sangbad Ekalavya	Link: https://www.sangbadekalavya.in/2020/11/Ashraf-Patel-of-Pravah--ComMutiny-Youth-Collective-wins-the-Social-Entrepreneur-of-the-Year-SEOY-Award-India-2020.html?m=1
Edition – Online	Date – 01.12.2020

Social Entrepreneur of the Year (SEOY) Award - India 2020 Awards Ashraf Patel of Probah & Communion Youth Collective

Sangbad Ekalavya 11/30/2020 06:19:00 PM todaynews

Social Entrepreneur of the Year (SEOY) Award - India 2020 Awards Ashraf Patel of Probah & Communion Youth Collective

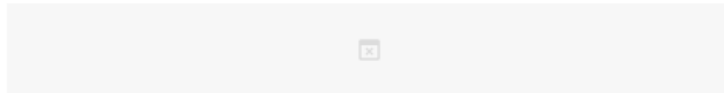

Kolkata, November 30, 2020: Ashraf Etterke (SEO) of the Squab Foundation for Social Entrepreneurship, Flow and Community Youth Collective (CYC) Awards - India is announcing as the winner of 2020 Mrs. Smriti Irani, Hon'ble Minister, Ministry of Women and Child Development and Textiles, Government of India, presented the award to him in a virtual ceremony in the presence of eminent personalities from all over the world.

Appreciating the winners and finalists of this year's SEOY Awards India 2020, Mrs. Smriti Irani, Hon'ble Minister, Ministry of Women and Child Development and Textiles, Government of India, said: I salute all the social entrepreneurs who have been honored by the esteemed judges for this prestigious award. The award shines brightly in front of our entire country today that empathy is not only a source of affection, it is also a business skill. India Champion: "

Ashraf Patel, winner of SEOY Awards India 2020 - has been calling for the development of groundbreaking change through a sympathetic, sensitive young generation in India. They are doing this through psychological-social interventions and helping them build more inclusive identities and societies.

Professor Klaus Squab, Founder and Executive President of the World Economic Forum and Co-Founder of the Squab Foundation for Social Entrepreneurship, announced the winner of the SEOY Awards India 2020, saying, We hope for greater representation of India in our activities because India is a major force in shaping the future and they need to be openly involved. "

The important role of social innovators in identifying immediate needs and responding to ground realities has been highlighted. The Squab Foundation for Social Entrepreneurship is not only driving the transformation of social innovators from India, it is also shifting institutions and processes to a more equitable, inclusive, sustainable future, with Jubilant Bharatiya Foundation awarding over the past 11 years. Proud to share: "

He has been a pioneer in the areas of health care, youth development and solid waste management, and has been credited with winning and competing for his outstanding efforts. Their commitment to this cause is unparalleled. "

---

Ashraf Patel will join the Squab Foundation for Social Entrepreneurship, the world's largest and most prestigious platform for social innovators from around the world. The winner will also participate in the annual and regional discussions of the World Economic Forum (WEF), which provides a unique opportunity to engage with global decision-makers from the public, business community, media, education and civil society. Other finalists were Sujoy Santra of IKure, Kolkata and Sandeep Patel of NEPRA, Ahmedabad.

Celebrating their 11th year, SEOY Awards India is establishing itself as one of the most recognizable and prestigious awards for social entrepreneurs in India. The award recognizes entrepreneurs who implement innovative, conceivable and measurable solutions to India's social problems. In 2010, the Squab Foundation for Social Entrepreneurship and the Jubilant India Foundation came together to promote social entrepreneurship in India through the Social Entrepreneur of the Year (SEOY) India Award.

SEOY Awards - India 2020, this year from 23 cities covering a diverse field including clean technology, news media based communication, youth development, disability, energy, enterprise development, working conditions, microfinance, health and nutrition, sustainable agriculture and water and sanitation. Received application 6

---

Among the judges for this year's award were Shobhana Bharatiya, Chairperson and Editorial Director of IT Media Limited, Chairperson and Co-Founder of Squab Foundation for Social Entrepreneurship, Hilde Squab, Jubilant Life Sciences Commission of the Government of India and Secretary, Sudha Pillai, President of CII and Executive Vice Chairman and Managing Director of Kotak Mahindra Bank, Uday Kotak, President and Distinguished Member of the Center for Social and Economic Progress, Rakesh Mohan, Chairperson of Arghyam Foundation , PR Ganapathi, Regional Director, India, and Dipesh Sutaria, Co-Founder, 2019 SEOY Winner, NBL India.

About the winner:

Flows, more inclusive acquaintances and psychological-social interventions to help shape society and bring about revolutionary change have been creating opportunities for the development of a generation of sympathetic, sensitive youth changers in India. A unique vision for the development of the youth community, developed in the form of '5th Space' with a belief that leaders emerge in places that are safe, empowering and inclusive. 5th Space focuses on the transformation of the youth community by keeping them engaged in deep self-discovery and helping them in their social initiatives to become transformers and awakened active citizens. It sponsors social inclusion, overall development and liberation, ownership, Nurtures social expectations by spreading love and feelings of education and growth | With a vision of their strategy and a vision of creating 'skills beyond capability', Flow has created more than 50 diverse blueprints for its own social journey for young people from urban middle class to rural and tribal backgrounds.

Communitate - The Youth Collective: Founded by Proverbs in collaboration with some of the best youth organizations in the country, operates as a vibrant national group of practitioners that engage in joint programs on contemporary issues and engage the public in youth-centric fields. Achieving the goal of 'Every Youth at Jagrik and Every Space Nurturing Jagrik'; a multi-sectoral structure called the Bharatalip Coalition is also emerging from this environment which places youth duties and rights at the center of all youth related programs and policies and places in the country. And affects: 6 Stream and Community - The Youth Collective (CVC) Collaborates to Create 680,000 Youth Leaders,

