

Publication: ET Bharat	Link: https://www.etvbharat.com/english/national/bharat/indian-companies-spent-over-rs-1-trillion-in-corporate-social-responsibility-anurag-thakur/na20220916081832888888307
Edition: Online	Date: 16.09.22

Anurag Thakur, an Indian politician from BJP, was at the Social Entrepreneur of the Year 2022 awards in Delhi wherein he shared that India is the first country to have legislated Corporate Social Responsibility.

New Delhi: Union Minister Anurag Thakur, on September 15, attended the Social Entrepreneur of the Year 2022 awards in Delhi. While addressing the event Anurag Thakur said, "In 2014-15, India became the first country in the world with legislated 'Corporate Social Responsibility' with a spending threshold of $2.5 billion. Till March 2022, Indian companies have spent over Rs 1 trillion in CSR." (ANI)